
 Unomito Variant. Follow the classic Unomito rules or the 1pile variant, but now include the extra cards: the number 12 cards.

 The 12 is a joker. These 6 additional cards function as jokers, allowing you to play them without the risk of being caught as a liar.

Unomito Classic. When a 12 becomes face up, the player who played it gets to choose its color and number.

Unomito 1pile. When a 12 is turned face up, it adopts the color and number declared by the player at the time it was played face down.
